FEATURE HOUSE
TONIGHT

"OUT OF THE DRIFTS"

Paramount feature, with the adorable Marguerite Clark in a romance of irresistible appeal. A photo-drama of rare charm. A tale of the eternal snows, of avalanches, dizzy heights and yawning chasms. But the battle against the elements is not the only one in which the adorable famous player star is pitted against a powerful adversary. She is a simple, unsophisticated little shepherdess whose innocence and beauty arouse in a dissolute visitor at the village, which is her home. "Out of the Drifts" is different from anything in which this star has ever appeared on the screen; it retains the same irresistible charm and the unforgettable personality with which Marguerite Clark invests every role which she assumes. Unique photoplay.

TUESDAY—"Hell's Hinges." Triangle Kay-Dee feature with William S. Hart and Clara Williams and Louise Glaum. Thomas H. Ince production.

A Paramount picture today. We all know what Marguerite Clark is. Another Mary Pickford, only better. Don't miss this, as she will be at her best today.
